Hey, hey, don't you see, the children in the street.
They fear the climate changes and the future they will meet.

Hey, hey, don't you see, we're fed up with the lies.
We're fed up with the fossils and the lobby and the lies.

Hey, hey, don't you see, the time is running out.
We're fighting for the nature that we cannot live without.

Hey, hey, don't you see, we fight for global life.
We're marching for the future and the right to have a life.

Hey, hey, don't you see, you need to take a stand.
You have to join the children when they need a helping hand.

Hey, hey, don't you see, the strike is moving on.
We're fighting for the climate and the strike has just begun.
